Partners

- FAO (BIOREACH Project)
- Ministry of Planning & Development (GORTT)
- NAMDEVCO
- Environment Management Authority (EMA)
- Tourism and agriculture agencies
- Private sector and financial institutions
- NGOs and training institutions

Targets

- Farmers & agro-entrepreneurs
- Ecotourism & agrotourism operators
- Community groups & rural enterprises
- Youth and women-led businesses

About the Project

This project supports farmers, communities, and tourism operators to develop sustainable, nature-based businesses that protect biodiversity while creating income opportunities.

It is part of the BIOREACH Programme, led by FAO and funded by the Global Environment Facility (GEF), focused on restoring landscapes and building green value chains in Trinidad and Tobago.

Objectives

- ✓ Strengthen eco- and agro-tourism businesses
- ✓ Improve access to markets and partnerships
- ✓ Promote sustainable farming and tourism practices
- ✓ Support biodiversity conservation and rural livelihoods

4-Phase Approach

- 1. Engage & Assess | Stakeholder Assessment & Engagement
 - Identify operators, needs, and opportunities
- 2. Analyse & Plan | Sustainable Agro-Eco Tourism Roadmap
 - Develop growth strategies and priority actions
- 3. Train & Connect | Capacity Building & Partnerships
 - Build skills and access new markets
- 4. Grow & Showcase | Promotion & Business Support
 - Increase visibility and support business growth

Connect with us for training, partnerships, and opportunities to enhance your agro/eco-tourism business.
